The Land Partnerships Workshops

Using land to unlock business innovation

3rd November 2016

Royal Agricultural University, Cirencester

What are the Land Partnership Workshops ?

Are you a land entrepreneur looking to unlock a new business innovation but need land or would like to consider a joint venture to realise your ideas?

Are you a land owner or land agent who is seeking new ways to access your land's business potential, diversify or looking for other solutions to help with succession planning?

Fresh Start Land Enterprise Centre CIC is currently running a series of workshops across England and Wales to introduce you to our 5 step approach to help initiate and develop new business collaborations via a range of joint venture routes. The workshops will introduce you to considerations you need to be aware of and the benefits such working agreements can bring.

Land Partnership Workshop 3rd November 2016, RAU, Cirencester

The day will start at 10.00 am with registration and refreshments and conclude around 3.30 pm.

Cost of the event is £40 per person and includes lunch.

Workshop Content

- Learn about our 5 step approach to land partnership working
- Entrepreneurial and landowner (and land agent) case studies
- A range of professionals to share their experience and guide on the processes and techniques and answer your questions
- Learn from those that have tried a different approach
- Workshop sessions bringing entrepreneurs & land owners together
- Networking opportunities to share your ideas
- Learn about our new Land Matching Service
